

The work was quite modern but I think good. You see so much work it becomes easy to become critical. Also the four select painters seemed we were taken to a wonderful sea food restaurant. After everybody (all people) had given their order I gave your order California and Wisconsin. I was worried when all the others changed theirs for the same. The game was excellent.

Later dear we drove about the city seeing the most interesting old sections. Visited one of Mead's studios. That evening we went to a crummy opera. Russia has many countries in the opera. Ballet and a bit on the theatre. Dinner and

The next day we visited the studios. One was the sculptor that did the large fountain in front of the UN Building. That evening it was really cold and we had to get a taxi with slides. What a mess waiting to get in the USSR auditorium. I went only to a public phone booth in the street to keep warm and got locked in. He couldn't open the door. I looked so silly & stayed trying to get out. Three people pulling on the door and a crowd gathering. I could help break out in wild laughter before the Cop came.

The next morning early we drove to Subotica. A beautiful drive towards Kutina. We had to meet at the Museum of Modern Art. There many moves were made, later Subotica.
We visited a school, studio, etc
Lunch etc. Drove to an old castle 10 in one car. Photos again.

Later a Med press Conference - Dinner and train to Belgrade.

Next day (morning $30) Belgrade.
Studio visit school the same old stuff. In the evening we had a reception PAO office -

Next day we visited 10 sculptors and painters studios I must said the government really looks after the artist in these countries.

Beautiful studios (modern) with much property around they pay something like the Mod ¹⁰⁰⁰ $16 a month for 40 years.
Later Reception.

Today we drove to Novi Sad - A beautiful old city near the Border of Hungary. A very interesting day. We met many young enthusiastic sculptors. Out of the 144 photos I have exactly 2 left - one your head and the ^{Head} _{Love you summer}
