New York City

Dear Mr. Rhoden:

Certain of our clients are interested in commissioning sculptors for the design and execution of a number of monumental compositions. In recommending you, it would be helpful if you would lend us photographs of your work for their consideration in this connection. Since most of the proposed compositions will, we expect, be executed in bronze or other metals, it would be particularly helpful if your photographs were limited to phases of your work demonstrating your talent and experience in design and composition in these media.

We hope it will be convenient for you to supply us with this material within the next two weeks. This request is also being made to other artists whose work, we believe, will be of special interest.

With all good wishes for the Season, I am

Yours sincerely,

James Kellum Smith

Certain of our clients are interested in obtaining designers for the design and execution of a number of commercial compositions. In recommending you, it would be helpful if you would send us photographs of your work for their consideration in this connection. Since most of the proposed compositions will, we expect, be executed in bronze or other metals, it would be particularly helpful if your photographs were limited to designs of your work demonstrating your talent and experience in design and composition in these media.

We hope it will be convenient for you to supply us with this material within the next two weeks. This request is also being made to other artists whose work, we believe, will be of special interest.
