Dear Johns:

If your ears and that charming Mrs. Rhoden's ears haven't been burning today something is wrong. You should have heard the discussion of the charming wife --- and that perfectly magnificent jewelry. You know, long ago, I learned to accept a compliment such as this, "your frames are beautiful." All joking aside, it was wonderful to ~~see~~^{hear} you two.

I am proud of you both. During the coming years and months I shall continue to follow your progress with genuine pride. Have a glorious trip and don't forget to drop us a card occasionally.

Sincerely yours,

Lamar Dodd
