Dear John:

Ann and I were flattered and honored that one of your assistants called to invite us to a reception held recently in your honor at the Birmingham Museum of Art prior to the formal opening of your exhibit. I regret that a prior commitment prevented our being able to attend for we would have so enjoyed getting to meet you. However, I look forward to having the opportunity to view your sculpture while it is on exhibit at the Birmingham Museum.

I unsuccessfully attempted to reach you during your stay at the Hyatt House. I do hope that you got the message and that circumstances will soon coalesce so that our paths will cross in either New York or Birmingham. Until then, best wishes always!

Cordially,

George D. H. McMillan, Jr.
