Mr. John Rhoden
285 Eighth Avenue
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Rhoden:

Many thanks for your kind letter of October 21st. I have heard from Mrs. Steinberg that your splendid bronze of the "Dancers" has arrived and is now placed in her garden. I expect to see it next week.

I have not forgotten your other pieces, the horses in particular, and I do hope to see them again when I am in New York sometime. I will make a note of your address and phone number and let you know when I am there.

You may have heard that I have been appointed Director of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston and will be leaving St. Louis in the spring to assume my new duties.

I am happy to know that you are settled in New York and want to wish you every success.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Perry F. Rathbone". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Perry" and last name "Rathbone" clearly legible.
