Samuel A. Gleason
SAMUEL A. GLEASON
Secretary of Revenue

This is to certify that tax need not be collected with respect to the sale of property to be used and consumed by the above-named Contractor or Builder in the fulfillment of certain Construction Contracts entered into prior to March 7, 1956, in accordance with application filed with the Bureau of Sales and Use Tax.

The issuance of this Contractor's Special Permit by the Department of Revenue is for the purpose of permitting a Vendor to make a sale of certain Tangible Personal Property without collection of tax. The issuance of this Permit does not imply a finding by the Department of Revenue that use of such property is exempt from tax. Should use of property purchased pursuant to such Permit be subject to tax the person using such property must file a return with respect to the use of such property within the time provided for by the Act.

[This Permit is void after the actual completion date of the Contract or Contracts on file with the Department or March 7, 1957, whichever date shall first occur and this Permit must be returned to the Department on or before the above prescribed date.]
