The Costume Sketch Class will be under the direction of Mr. Anshutz.

MR. CHASE'S TALKS.

The talks to students given by Mr. Chase during the past year have been a feature of the course, and will be continued for the coming season.

ANATOMY AND PER-SPECTIVE.

The Lectures on Anatomy and Perspective begin in the second week of November.

A detailed schedule of Classes will be found on page 20.

ADMISSION
MENTS.
ELEMENT-ARY
COURSE.

It is understood that the First Sections of the Antique Drawing and Still-life Painting Classes, with the night Antique Class, are preparatory and intended as a suitable introduction to the higher study of art in the Academy's courses. Drawings or sketches from the solid object will be required for admission to the schools. Applicants may prepare these in the school rooms, or may forward specimens made for the purpose.

ADMISSIONS.

All applications for admission and for promotion to higher classes will be acted upon by the Faculty, with the concurrence of the Committee on Instruction, at the regular meetings held on the Thursday before the last Wednesday of each month, excepting the months of June, July, and August. All admissions and promotions are on probation and subject to reconsideration at the discretion of the Faculty. Before making any application for transfer from one class to another, students must have approval of such application from the Instructor of the class in which they are working.

Pupils may enter the schools at any time during the season but are not permanently assigned to classes until the first Faculty meeting after their entrance.

All applications must be on file the day before the meeting of the Faculty.

It is an imperative rule that all work submitted for examination for any purpose must be signed, otherwise it will not be considered.

To avoid loss, studies must be reclaimed promptly after examination.

Those desiring to enter the Second Section of the Day Antique Drawing Class must present signed drawings from the solid object. Those desiring to enter the Second Section of the Still-life Painting Class must present signed paintings from the solid object.

Students will be admitted to the Life and Head Classes only by the action of the Faculty after an examination of their work in Drawing from the full length figure, either antique or life.

Students admitted to a Day Life Class require no further examination for admission to the Head Class.

ADMISSIONS.
CONTINUED.

Color work in a Life Class or a Head Class will be permitted, subject to the approval of the Instructor in charge.

Specimens of modelling of sufficient merit are required for admission or promotion to the Life Modelling Classes.

Day Life and Head Course students are privileged to work without extra charge in all the classes of the schools, including the evening classes.

Day Antique Course students may work in the Night Antique Classes without extra charge.

NIGHT LIFE
MODELLING.

The Night Life Modelling Classes will be continued unless the attendance should fall below six in any class.

PARTIAL COURSES.

Students desiring partial courses, including one or more of the above classes, will be required to make a special application to the Faculty; but in this case they will not be entitled to the privileges or rates of tuition accorded to those taking the full course.

CONCOURS.

During the second term general Concours will be held in all the regular classes on successive dates to be announced.

continued. Professor Paul Phillippe Crét will give regular criticisms throughout the season.

The work of the students in this course will consist chiefly of problems in design, but drawing from the antique or life will also be required. Modelling and Perspective may be included if desired.

For the convenience of students who are members of the T-Square Club, all work in Architectural Design, other than nine-hour sketches, may be done at the T-Square Club House. Students of this course who are not members of the T-Square Club will have facilities for doing their work in Architectural Design at the Academy or the University as they may elect. The following work will be done at the Academy: Drawing from the Antique or Life, Modelling, Perspective, and in Architectural Design, all nine-hour sketches.

The class is divided into two sections:

The First Section consists of those who, while not mere beginners, are still unprepared for advanced work. Admission to the First Section will be obtained by the submission of satisfactory examples of work to the Faculty.

The Second Section will consist of students who have been promoted from the First Section or who have been admitted directly as graduates of recognized schools of architecture or as having equal qualifications.

Members of the architectural course desiring to take part in the competitions of the New York Society of Beaux Arts Architects will be at liberty to send their work there for judgment and award.

By arrangement with the Managing Committee of the John Stewardson Scholarship in Architecture, the problem for the competition for that scholarship will be identical in time and subject with one of the more important problems of the Academy's course, so that students of that course, if otherwise properly qualified for the Stewardson competition, may take part therein by simply performing their regular work.

It is also expected that arrangements will be made by which the graduates of the School of Architecture of the University of Pennsylvania, who are students in the Academy course, may take part in the competition for the Alumni Fellowship by submitting in competition one of the regular problems of the Academy course.

All students must enroll at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and pay their dues of ten dollars per term (twenty dollars per annum) to the Curator, receiving a membership card, without which no student will be admitted to the classes. Those who have not previously been students of the Academy will be required to pay the Academy's matriculation fee of five dollars.

By the terms of the wills of Emlen Cresson and Priscilla P. Cresson, a Fund has been created as a Memorial to their deceased son, William Emlen Cresson, Academician, the income of which is to be applied by The Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts in sending pupils of merit of the said Corporation to Europe to study art.

CRESSON FUND FOR FOREIGN SCHOLARSHIPS.

Under this foundation, during the past three years the Academy has sent abroad for study twenty-four pupils for terms varying from four months to two years.

For the school year of 1905-1906, the Academy will have at its disposal a number of Travelling Scholarships for awards to students of the Schools, in Painting, Sculpture, and Architectural Design.

These will consist of Long-term and Short-term Scholarships, the number of each to be determined by circumstances. The Long-term Scholarships will be for the period of one year or more; the Short-term Scholarships will be for a period of four months, from June to September, inclusive.

Of the Short-term Scholarships it is a condition that students shall return to the Academy for regular study during the following school year, when it is expected that they will again be competitors for Cresson Scholarships.

The work required each month in the Academy Schools from students in Painting, Sculpture, and Architectural Design, will be the principal factor in determining the award of these Scholarships. Candidates failing to submit such work will be ineligible.

Painters will be required to present work each month in Composition, in drawing or painting from the Figure, in drawing or painting from the Head; and to participate in the Concours and examinations as set forth below.

Sculptors will be required to present each month work done in the Life Modelling Class and a composition in clay or wax. They are required to participate in the Concours and examinations as set forth below.

The requirements for the Night Classes are the same as for the Day Classes, but Night Students will not be required to present drawings from the Head, except in the Concours, which for them will be held at night. There will be no Still-life Concours for night students.

Participation in the annual Concours of both the Antique and the Life and Head Courses will also be required from students in Painting and Sculpture as follows: Drawing from the Figure on paper of Academy size, Painting from Head, Modelling from Life, Composition, Drawing from Cast, and Painting from Still-life. In the cases of Perspective and Anatomy, there will be examinations by the Instructors of these classes.

In the School of Architecture the awards will be made upon two plan problems, two sketches, and three drawings from the cast or life, made in three different months, and selected by the student from the work of the entire year.

The Charles Toppan prizes for the year 1905-1906 will be, respectively, $400 and $300.

These prizes were established in 1881 by the gift of Mrs. Charles Toppan, Miss Harriette R. Toppan, and Mr. Robert N. Toppan.

The prizes will be awarded only to students who have worked regularly in the Academy Schools for at least two years, one of which must be the year of the competition.

Prizes will not be awarded to the same person twice in succession, and not more than twice in all.

According to the positively expressed terms of the gift, the drawing of the pictures will receive the first attention of the judges. The size of the canvas must not be less than twelve inches nor more than thirty-six inches.

The works submitted must be original paintings dealing with the subject or subjects named by the Committee on Instruction, and all works in competition must be presented on or before Saturday, May 5, 1906.

The subjects chosen for the year 1905-1906 are Travel and Home Life.

CHARLES
CONTINUED.

Pictures receiving the awards will become the property of the Academy.

It is expected that pictures submitted in competition for these prizes shall be the unaided work of the student, without criticism.

No work will be accepted without the approval of the Committee on Instruction, and there is no obligation to award a prize if in the opinion of the Committee none of the works submitted is of sufficient merit.

For these prizes participation in the Concours is not required.

EDMUND

The Edmund Stewardson Prize of One Hundred Dollars, in the Department of Sculpture, will be awarded for the seventh time at the close of the school year.

This is an annual prize, to be competed for by present students of the Academy with such pupils of other art schools as may be approved by the Committee on Instruction. Having once received this reward, a student becomes ineligible.

The subject for the competition shall be a full-length figure from the Antique or Life, either in the round or in relief, and will be announced by the Committee on Instruction on the first day of the Competition.

Studies shall not be less than two feet six inches in height and not more than three feet in height, and shall be made within eighteen hours, during three consecutive days, in six sessions of three hours each.

Each competitor shall privately draw by lot a number, and shall enclose the same with his or her name in a sealed envelope to the Secretary of the Academy. Upon completion of the work the competitor shall place a corresponding number upon the study submitted to the Jury of Award. When the subject is in high relief, position in the competition room shall be determined by lot. No one except the competitors shall be admitted to the competition room at any time during the days of the competition, nor shall any person except the Judges be present during their inspection of the studies.

The Judges or Jury of Award shall be three professional sculptors, having no official connection with the Academy, or school or schools whose pupils may have taken part in the competition. When the successful number shall have been announced by the Judges, the Secretary shall, in the presence of one or more of the Directors of the Academy, open the sealed envelopes, and declare the name of the successful competitor. If no study be satisfactory to the Judges, the prize may, in their discretion, be withheld; and when no award is made, the amount of the prize may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Academy, be added to the principal of the prize fund, or distributed with future prizes.

EDMUND
CONTINUED.

The clay models offered in competition must be kept standing in good condition until otherwise ordered, and figures cast by the Academy become its property.

The competition for the year 1906 will take place on May 21, 22, and 23.

AWARDS IN COMPOSITION CLASS.

The following awards, founded by Henry J. Thouron, a former Instructor in composition in the Academy Schools, will be made at the close of each school year, the terms of said awards being as follows :

One of $50 and one of $25 for the two best groups of not less than three compositions upon subjects given to the class during the current season; the first to be decided by the Faculty, the second by a vote of the students then working in the schools; and one of $50, and one of $25, the first for general progress in the study; the second for the work showing, in its treatment of said subjects, the most poetic, or best abstract, or idealistic point of view, the same to be decided by the Instructor of the class. The same awards are not to be made twice to the same student.

In the event of not making the annual awards, or any portion of them, the money is to accumulate until it shall amount to the sum of $500, when it shall be awarded, by vote of the Faculty, as the result of a competition in Composition upon a given subject, to the successful student for a three months' summer trip abroad, to include certain specified places and galleries, and for the special study of Composition.

Through the liberality of the Chairman of the Committee on Instruction, annual prizes of $15 and $10 have been founded for the best and second best groups of original studies made from living animals. These prizes are open to all students of the Academy.

Exhibitions of the Students' work are held each year in the Fall and Spring.

The Cresson Travelling Scholarships and other prizes will be awarded at the close of the second term.

The income from the various Funds of the Academy makes possible low rates of tuition, as follows :
