Dear John and Richanda:

Thanks for that wonderful letter, and I am so pleased that all is going well, especially John's work, but please, please don't have such dreams as that one. That was a lulu.

Richanda, it would be wonderful to share with you some of your sukiyaki, but I can see from my schedule right now that I doubt if we are going to have an evening off. I did want to drop in the studio, possibly late one afternoon -- if we can squeeze it in. May I call you on Thursday or Friday night of next week?

We had the pleasure of having Dan Newberry over for dinner some weeks ago. As you may know, he is now stationed in New York City, of all places, with the U.S. Mission of U.N.

Irene had a grand time in North Carolina. She is now hard at work on her music and the 10th grade.

Very best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Lamar Dodd
