Dear Mr. Howland:

Enclosed you will find that biographical information form on John W. Rhoden. You remember that I told you about this young man and the wonderful record he has made. In addition to the information contained in the form, I am taking the liberty of sending to you other information relative to John, and if by chance you would like to have some photographs of his work, I will either obtain these for you or you may write directly to John at 285 Eighth Street, New York 1, New York.

Unfortunately, no printed record will give you any indication of the wonderful personality of this delightful individual. Here's hoping that you can use him in some capacity.

Very best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Lamar Dodd,
Head of Department
