FINED BY BOARD BETWEEN Bahia Port and Bahia
Dear Sirs,

Dear Sir I left Rio de Janeiro about 11 1/2 am. My 7 1/2 day stay was not of the most satisfactory stay I've ever experienced anywhere. As I told you before Mr Robert gave me Mr Laurens advised so that I could work if I like. The first that I had the stop over in Rio was to acquire visas for the Brazil. For 5 days.

This is what I did plus reading information about the country on my steamship.
By the way this is what it looks like today. Of course there may be a few changes here & there perhaps because of flight changes and delays I shall not come home.

Bahia, Bahia. It Rained every day

FROM WINDSOR LETTER

I managed to see most of the people you asked me to see I saw the Mayor and he promised me (perhaps of course you knew what happened) While in town I spent more money than I ever expected I had to pay nearly £50 for change of baggage & that big job I made you really getting me out too washed terribly. A couple of times I had to pay extra.
Killed also customs in general made me angry. So I had to carry by small packs instead of two big & two small ones.

The stop-off in London for an hour (then forward and forward) I got out. Tell me. I tried to call back from the Air Force Hotel but got nothing.
So here in Berlin at 7th seemed like an awful hell one. The one really expected me. That I was glad so that I could see a little more of Delhi.

 Anyway The Cultural Attache was a Reg term operator by the name of Thomas Allen. Where did he get the title. Of course He did Brew up about 10 for tea and spent all of the time showing his Antique Indian collection of stuff that he had acquired by some crooked deals.
 I tried my best to get away so some how I got stuck for dinner. His wife
 "settled" just that the whole time. A cold damp protocol. I followed the contact and had a pretty good time today on the back of a motorcycle smast of the Plaza.

These smast picturesque.
Do you remember the
"Kid & I" The Fulon?

Please Richarda go over to Eli and tell him to give you a check for that work, tell him I had to pay that money to the Foundry. The Foundry got stuck, and we didn't want to have any trouble.
Get the money and use the money from that Schneider deal and get yourself visas to Japan and if it cost too much more to Korea. I'll be in Seoul on the 5th Feb and in Tokio on the 15th Let me know just what you might do. I hope such arrangements dont upset any plans.

WRITING BY BOBAC BETWEEN

I know these little things are difficult. Cubby & Mrs. Mei and next the Bird, the frogs and the flowers. The more I think of all these things the more impossible it seems. I would very much like to have you
 with me to enjoy some of this trip. I'm sure that it will cost at least $1,500. Do you think you should chance it?

Ask P.M. what deal could be made on my ticket.

NO. room 0204 Sec 23 70831-37 of course mine is First class you can get Tourist and I can change mine.
 what do you think? I ask
