Dear John - Pemberton:

The arrival of a check, via a letter from Mary Williams, from you this morning reminded me that I had never thanked you for your good letter of 14 March - I'm so glad things went well here - 25 pieces plus paintings in an enormous amount of work - and I'd love to have seen it all - Perhaps I'll be in New York for the next show.

A letter from The Cowley's said told of the good times they had with you on the boat - I'm glad you saw something of them, for I think they are wonderful people

Come back as soon as you can. This is always a better place. When you're both here - visit. The puddles and the send you

loves
