In addition to the classes named in the schedule, Mr. William M. Chase will conduct his class in Painting from Life, for artists and advanced students only, to be held three afternoons weekly.

ADDI-TIONAL CLASSES.

Admission to the second section of the Portrait

Class is subject to the approval of the Instructors, and the number is limited.

The Costume Sketch Class, open free to all the regular students of the schools, will be under the direction of Mr. Thomas P. Anshutz.

ILLUSTRATION.

Announcement will be made later as to the regular class in Illustration.

MR. CHASE'S TALKS.

The talks to students given by Mr. Chase during the past year have been a feature of the course, and will be continued for the coming season.

ELEMENTARY ANTIQUE COURSE.

It is understood that the First Sections of the Antique Drawing and Still Life Painting Classes are preparatory ones, intended as a suitable introduction to the higher study of art in the Academy's courses.

ANATOMY AND PERSPECTIVE.

The Lectures on Anatomy and Perspective begin in the second week of November.

A detailed schedule of classes will be found on page 14.

ADMISSIONS.

All applications for admission and for promotion to higher classes will be acted upon by the Faculty, with the concurrence of the Committee on Instruction, at the regular meetings held on the Thursday before the last Wednesday of each month, excepting the months of June, July, and August. All admissions and promotions are on probation and subject to reconsideration at the discretion of the Faculty.

1900-01

Pupils may enter the schools at any time, but are not permanently assigned to classes until the first Faculty meeting after their entrance.

All applications must be on file the day before the meeting of the Faculty.

No specimens of work are required for admission to the First Section of the Day Antique Course, or to the Night Antique Course.

Those desiring to enter the Second Section of the Day Antique Course must present signed specimens of their work drawn or painted from the solid object.

Students will be admitted to the Life and Head Classes only by the action of the Faculty after an examination of their work in Drawing from the Figure.

Students admitted to a Day Life Class require no further examination for admission to the First Section of the Head Class.

Color work in a Life Class or a Head Class will be permitted subject to the approval of the instructor in charge.

Specimens of modelling of sufficient merit are required for admission or promotion to the Life Modelling Classes.

Day Life and Head Course students are privileged to work without extra charge in all the classes of the schools, including the evening classes.

Day Antique Course students may work in the Night Antique Classes without extra charge.

NIGHT LIFE
MODELLING

The Night Life Modelling Classes will be continued unless the attendance should fall below six in any class.

PARTIAL COURSES.

Students desiring partial courses, including one or more of the above classes, will be required to make a special application to the Faculty; but in this case they will not be entitled to the privileges or rates of tuition accorded to those taking the full course.

CONCOURS.

During the second term general Concours will be held in all the regular classes on successive dates to be announced.

TRAVELLING
SCHOLAR-SHIP.

Through the liberality of a member of the Board of Directors, a Travelling Scholarship of $800, providing for one year's study abroad, has, for the last ten years, been offered to students of the Academy.

The Committee on Instruction announces that a similar scholarship for the year 1901-1902 has been extended to the schools by the same member of the Board.

The work required each month from students will be the principal factor in determining the award of this Scholarship. Candidates failing to submit such work will be ineligible.

Participation in the annual Concours of both the Antique and the Life and Head Courses will also be required, as follows: Drawing from the Figure on paper of Academy size, Painting from Head, Modelling from Life, Composition, Drawing from Cast, Painting from Still-life, Perspective, and Anatomy.

TRAVELLING
SCHOLAR-SHIP.

The Charles Toppan prizes of $200 and $100 respectively were established in 1881 by the gift of Mrs. Charles Toppan, Miss Harriette R. Toppan, and Mr. Robert N. Toppan.

CHARLES
PRIZES.

The prizes will be awarded only to students who have worked regularly in the Academy Schools for at least two years, one of which must be the year of the competition.

According to the positively expressed terms of the gift, the drawing of the pictures will receive the first attention of the judges.

The works submitted must be original paintings dealing with the subject or subjects named by the Committee on Instruction, and all works in competition must be presented on or before Monday, May 6, 1901.

The subjects chosen for the year 1900-1901 are A Letter or A Game. The size of canvas must be not less than twelve inches nor more than thirty-six inches. Pictures receiving the awards shall become the property of the Academy.

No work will be accepted without the approval of the Committee on Instruction, and there is no obligation to award a prize if in the opinion of the Committee none of the works submitted is of sufficient merit.

For these prizes participation in the Concours is not required.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1901-1902.

For the school year 1901-1902 the Toppan prizes will be increased to $500 and $200 respectively.

EDMUND
STEWARDS-
SON PRIZE.

The Edmund Stewardson Prize of One Hundred Dollars, in the Department of Sculpture, will be awarded for the second time at the close of the school year.

This is an annual prize, to be competed for by the students of the Academy with such pupils of other art schools as are acceptable to the Committee on Instruction.

The subject for the competition shall be a full-length figure from the Antique or Life, either in the round or in relief, and will be announced by the Committee on Instruction on the first day of the competition.

Studies shall not be less than two feet six inches in height and not more than three feet in height, and shall be made within eighteen hours, during three consecutive days, in six sessions of three hours each.

Each competitor shall privately draw by lot a number, and shall enclose the same with his or her name in a sealed envelope to the Secretary of the Academy. Upon completion of the work the competitor shall place a corresponding number upon the study submitted to the Jury of Award. When the subject is in high relief, position in the competition room shall be determined by lot. No one except the competitors shall be admitted to the competition room at any time during the days of the competition, nor shall any person except the judges be present during their inspection of the studies.

The Judges or Jury of Award shall be three professional sculptors, having no official connection with the Academy, or school or schools whose pupils may have taken part in the competition. When the successful number shall have been announced by the Judges, the Secretary shall, in the presence of one or more of the Directors of the Academy, open the sealed envelopes, and declare the name of the successful competitor. If no study be satisfactory to the Judges, the prize may, in their discretion, be withheld; and when no award is made, the amount of the prize may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Academy, be added to the principal of the prize fund, or distributed with future prizes.

The clay models offered in competition must be kept standing in good condition until otherwise ordered, and figures cast by the Academy become its property.

The competition for the year 1901 will take place on May 20, 21, and 22.

EDMUND
SON PRIZE.

ZOOLOGICAL PRIZES.

For the two best series of studies from animals in the Zoological Garden, made in any medium, two members of the Board of Directors have generously offered annual prizes.

EXHIBITIONS.

Exhibitions of the Students' work are held each year in the Fall and Spring.

AWARDS.

The Travelling Scholarship and other prizes will be awarded at the opening of the Spring Exhibition of the Students.
