CABLE ADDRESS
"AMACADMY"

Dear Bucka,

Richenda I have had much time at all here to do any work. Really its too frustrating to try. Yesterday all day I ran around trying to get my visas & etc. It rained all day and altho I had the Embassy car when I got to the Academy I was like a mad wet cat.

I had made arrangements for the Embassy to send "Salome" home but when I went by to see Schuender this what had happened. He had sold the piece in March 1958. I dont know what price we asked. He took 30%. I'll tell you the details later.

Here are two Bank Transmitts for $20 & $30 (200 & 300 Rubles) Please go to our Bank and have the money transferred to our account. Also Bill Smith will probably come by to see you and leave a check for $20 (he got in Russia) $20 for Jugoslavia).

What chances there may be that we may meet in Japan. Check the possibilities. Let me know in Cambodia Love Wm
