Dear young ones. Sept. 18, 1933

I came by to see you while in N.Y. but you were out. Now I'm back in Rome again and probably won't see the states again for at least 10 years.

I'm only kidding. My trip has been postponed for a while. Soak in the pool. Please go by to plug it up quick. Thanks for your card from Naples with address. I signed you out with future address. Texas O.K. This place is lonesome without the Rhodens kicking up the dust, but of course there is always more.

Hope to see you soon.
