Dear Buba,

It seems in complete love not having heard from you for months. I'm sure that for whatever reason your letters survive till be here in Bangkok until the 13th. Then for Saigon for three days. I'm hoping to get to Cambodia about the 24th of Jan. for two weeks.

I think that the most inspiring and most artistic country or place in the world any place has been Bali. The place is fantastically rich in material for the artist. It seemed everyone is an artist. The dance, music, theater, and the crafts are the envy of everyone. I had no idea that I would ever come to such a paradise. You have no Java, Sumatra and I hear more at this hour 12:15 pm.

Today the plane from Bali was most pleasant. The beautiful rice fields, the many craters & volcanoes and deep green crevices spelled thru the south make a fascinating picture. I wish to much to tell you about Rindand. It is to let you constantly hear from me. My love to you and the family.

John
