Dear Mr. Rhoden:

Mrs. Hardin is not in the gallery today to answer your letter herself, but wants me to let you know that her plans for coming to New York are indefinite due to her mother's illness. However, I plan to arrive there on October 4th, and will phone you to make an appointment for the 8th or 6th. I'm most disappointed to hear that you may not have received your work from Rome by then; I've heard so much about it that I was looking forward to seeing it. However, I would like to see your earlier things, and you will hear from me.

Sincerely,

Sally Fairweather
