Dear Mr. Dodd,

It was good to talk with you on the telephone; I only hope that I didn't keep you too long, as I ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> ~~trying~~ <sup>tried</sup> to find out whatever I ~~could~~ <sup>could</sup> about the proposed trip to USSR, and after all it has been a very long time since you and I have had the chance to speak together, although I have thought about you many, many times.

We certainly will be looking forward to your next visit. ~~and I hope that by that time, the rest of my sculptures will have arrived from Rome~~

~~I have had word from the Foundry in Rome that~~
I have written the Foundry in Rome hoping that they can ship the remainder of my pieces so that they will be <sup>sent</sup> when you are ~~here~~ <sup>in New York</sup> this Summer. I am ordering for you to take them

Many thanks again for your generosity in giving me so much of your time on the telephone and best regards to your family. them

Sincerely
