CERTIFICATE 12351

RESOLVED, That the Art Commission having considered the revised design for an abstract sculpture for the lawn area of Bellevue Hospital, Manhattan, submitted by the Department of Public Works, represented by Exhibits "127-NW" and "N0", of record in this matter, hereby disapproves the same without prejudice to the submission of a revised design after the project architect has conducted a conference with the artists engaged for the work, with the object of coordination of effort.

A true copy of resolution adopted by the Art Commission at its meeting on January 10, 1972.
