

THE BROOKLYN MUSEUM • EASTERN PARKWAY • BROOKLYN, NEW YORK 11238

May 25, 1977

Mr. John Rhoden
23 Cranberry Street
Brooklyn, New York 11201

Dear Mr. Rhoden:

The Brooklyn Museum is sponsoring a major symposium as part of its interpretive programming for the "Two Centuries of Black American Art" exhibition opening in June at The Brooklyn Museum.

We would be pleased if you would consider serving as a member of the symposium panel that will be convened Friday, June 24, at 2:00 P.M. This two hour session will be on the artist-as-artist and will consist of representative artists talking about their experience as working professionals. Each presentation should be approximately 10-15 minutes in length with time being allotted at the end of the session for questions from the audience.

The Museum can offer an honorarium of $100.00 for your participation.

If you are interested in joining us on this important occasion, and I sincerely hope that you will be, kindly contact Mrs. Ildiko Heffernan at The Brooklyn Museum at your earliest convenience.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Ruth Ann Stewart
Coordinator for the Symposium
Afro-American Art: Form, Content and Direction