Dear John:

As usual, I was glad to hear from you again, and I will be very, very glad to keep these photographs of yours. I want to show them to our staff, and I would like to keep them in our file for awhile. However, knowing well the expense of having extra photographs made, I'll return these to you at a later date. If you have need for them at any time in the near future, just drop me a card and I'll fire them back at once.

I am returning to New York, I believe, next week for a couple of days, and I'll certainly give you a call.

Best wishes,

Lamar Dodd
