John:

Well, we awaited thou on the return trip from Indo-China but as you did not appear, assume you have returned to the U.S.A. via Hong Kong. Though we missed seeing you again, don't blame you for the preference of Hong Kong over Manila.

It was good having you with us for your brief stay. We enjoyed you, John, very much and hope we can see each other again some time.

Bill Dunn has informed me that he cannot send the things you purchased, as he had thought he might. (I picked up the things and paid for them, by the way). So I have had them packed in six (6) different packages and will send them via APO. I will start mailing them this coming week and, because they will be sent by ship, it may be a month or two before you receive them. Remember, 6 packages.

I cashed the blank dollar check you left with me, and filled it in for $55.00. I may have to bill you later for some shipping charges as I don't know how much they will be yet. The purchase price was $190.30, which is covered by the $55.00 check oked.

Debbie joins me in sending our very best to you and a hello to your wife.

Come see us again sometime
