Dearling

All of these sketchy letters are only part of my frustrations of not being with you. I'm very glad that you put that little passport picture in my folder. In some part you can understand the most important of all is that you are in my heart. How lucky I am.

We have been delayed here in Mexico for three days because of bad weather. We hope to leave sometime today for Tuxtla, San Marcos, and Bakura. When I say we I tell and myself. Lomax is now probably in India and Franklyn Watkins in Philadelphia. You have probably received an account of my state of being. I hoped Watkins would call.

Dear you asked if your small piece of sculpture be returned. I certainly think yes. I understood your feeling of that Orinoy deal. People are really funny. Sometimes I think my code of ethics are too high. I've seen a lot of my colleagues, likewise of course.

Bunika dear I pray that you are safe and in the best of health and spirit. There's so much in this dear world I wish that I could give you.

All my love

John G. Johnson
