Dear John and Richardos:

These photographs are magnificent, and I know that DeLonga and his students will enjoy seeing them. May I say that I love the titles just about as much as I do the sculpture. If these are by chance duplicates, John, we would dearly love to have them in our library as a record of your work. But knowing how important it is to keep photographic records on hand, my guess is you will want them returned.

I hope that you and Richardos are having some success in locating another studio. Know of our concern and best wishes as always.

As ever,

Lamar Dodd, Head
Department of Art
