Dear Mr. Dodd,

It was with great pleasure that I saw the beautiful exhibit set up in the Museum of Modern Art by your department. ~~It is a most interesting and complete demonstration of just what can be done to bring home to the public the workings of your department.~~ It does seem to be a most ingenious exhibit and ~~xxx~~ surpasses by far any other that ~~has been presented in this particular series.~~ I was very excited to see it.

*It's just wonderful
perfect*

Things have been very busy here. I know that you probably received the catalogue of the show at the Saldenberg Gallery here in New York. I was busy preparing for that show and also for the exhibition at the American Academy of Arts and Letters at 155th Street and Broadway in New York where their annual competition for Grants is under way. ~~Mr. Roberts mentioned a few weeks ago that you had been in New York for a very busy day; I am sorry that I didn't know that you were going to be in town, as I would have loved to see you for a moment, but I do know that when time is of the essence, as it undoubtedly was in your case, there just isn't time to do and see people and things that aren't completely essential. I hope that there will be a time when you will have a few hours to spend here in my studio. I have thought often of the grand time we had in Rome and of the clever drawings of your pretty little Irene, or shouldn't I say 'little' anymore. I know that in two years time little girls often grow up. ~~She is some girl and quite an artist.~~~~

Mr. Roberts mentioned my show in Chicago

I want to thank you again for mentioning my name in regard to the International Educational Exchange ~~program~~ program. Two weeks ago I had a letter from them giving me some information concerning their program and also asking me to list such things as lecture topics (paragraph summaries) and the like. ~~I have been wondering if you have any additional information that you can give me that will further clear the picture for me. If so, I would appreciate so much hearing from you.~~ My best regards to you and ~~to Mrs. Dodd.~~

Mrs Dodd & Jane Sincerely,
