FLYING BY BOAC BETWEEN

Dear Anthony -

After writing you last evening I decided to rearrange my luggage and got quite involved. Well, did I get so much trash. Really, dear it looked like some one had covered every inch of what I had looking for.

Margherita or Russian Cigarettes. at about 1:30 AM I just had to get in and then discovered my lock had been pulled off. I see do I miss my sewing gadget. You should have seen me drilling a hole thru a piece of metal with a tooth pick. The pyramid was easier to build. I fixed it.

Early the next morning I started dealing with precious stones and after 4 1/2 hours I found myself weak & submitted. Now I'm more than 100 shot I think I'm a sucker for my darling Bucka.

I had three appointments to visit an artist, a gallery and a school.

I checked out of the hotel, checked my luggage and then made a check with the Air Line for confirmation. The Plane 1 1/2 hours late. Back to the Hotel I had to unwind again. Dick had been the case many times. While at the Air Office P.M. I saw Lester B. Granger. He has been on thru the fall term. He raised about 2000. I told him you would join me. He is going to Nicaragua and will stay with Tom McBoys. That guy is really going the British hell. I see that he is getting the leader of the Man Mail feed. Over the Lapro the African National Congress group is getting everywhere. Kuluwa is taken India. These countries are really getting really nationalistic. The whites here really look fed up and I think they know it. Of course they still have

Shawl, jacket, hat etc etc only £150. The thing would have cost pretty to 1000. I don't think you like Leopards.
All kinds of skins dirt cheap.
I got tricked under this spell for buying you
beautiful things in jags.
What will you do with all this stuff.

Tomorrow morning about 3.30 I shall be dragged out of bed and lead to the airport.
I do hope to get a snap of sleep.
Shanny dear you may get this before Christmas or the day after. I feel so sentimental about you on Christmas. This is our last one apart.

Amique

Behi Natalis.

Merry Christmas

& Cheers

John
